

If CBS wishes to halt all HDTV programming unless the FCC approves this copy protection, then let them. The right of consumers to tape or copy for their own use has been diffinitively tested.